Hosting a Dynamics 365 Business Central event

Hosting a Dynamics 365 Business Central event

Thank you for your interest in hosting a Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central event. Our objective with this event kit is to provide partners with a framework for hosting a Dynamics 365 Business Central event of your own.

This event kit will provide guidance on hosting a successful event and resources to help you pull it off, including a workback schedule, a to-do checklist, an event abstract and agenda, and assets to help you market your event.

Making it your own

Please consider the information in this kit a framework. To the extent which it is useful, feel free to use it to create a Dynamics 365 Business Central event that is tightly aligned with this guidance, a Dynamics 365 Business Central event with your unique spin, or another event that is better aligned to serve you and your customers.

Topics to consider:

- · How to know you've outgrown your accounting solution
- Transforming your financial management in the cloud
- · Automate and secure your supply chain
- Defining and creating your business process
