Hosting a Dynamics 365 for Marketing event

Thank you for your interest in hosting a Microsoft Dynamics 365 for Marketing event. Our objective with this event kit is to provide partners with a framework for hosting a Dynamics 365 for Marketing event of your own.

This event kit will provide guidance on hosting a successful event and resources to help you pull it off, including a workback schedule, a to-do checklist, an event abstract and agenda, and assets to help you market your event.

Making it your own

Please consider the information in this kit a framework. To the extent which it is useful, feel free to use it to create a Dynamics 365 for Marketing event that is tightly aligned with this guidance, a Dynamics 365 for Marketing event with your unique spin, or another event that is better aligned to serve you and your customers.

Topics to consider:

- Evaluating marketing performance
- · Digital transformation in marketing
- Leveraging technology to connect sales and marketing
- Transform your customer journey in the cloud
- Defining and creating your lead nurture process

Abstract

Find and nurture more sales-ready leads by moving beyond basic email marketing. Connect sales and marketing, automate processes, and make smarter decisions to maximize your marketing ROI.

Technology has changed the way customers engage with brands and buy products. Businesses can no longer rely solely on basic email marketing and siloed sales and marketing processes to increase demand and close more deals. Modern businesses are leveraging connected sales and marketing to offer personalized nurture streams and seamless experiences throughout the buyer's journey.

We'd like to invite you and your team to participate in our Dynamics 365 for Marketing Summit, designed to equip you with the knowledge and tools to better create and nurture leads, align sales and marketing, and leverage embedded intelligence to make smarter decisions.

During this event you will learn how to:

- Inspire: Get inspired by new ideas and success stories of modern marketing teams leveraging technology to drive growth.
- Discover: Discover opportunities to improve marketing performance, deliver personalized experiences, and drive innovation.
- Experiment: Try the latest tools from Dynamics 365 for Marketing.
